MEMO

RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESPIONAGE - R

On 12/28/50 at 12:30 P.M. AUSA Myles Lane, SDNY, called the writer and advised that he was turning the matter of the bill of particulars in the ROSENBERG-SOBELL cases over to Roy Cohn, AUSA, and had set forth in a memo that the writer was familiar with the phase of the investigation concerning the dates and places of meetings with SOBELL. He said that Cohn, if he needed information on these points would contact this office.

Mr. Lane also advised that he received a call from General Foods Co., New York City, and was advised that Mr. Bloch, ROSENBERG'S attorney, had made inquiries about Jello box patterns. Mr. Lane was advised by General Foods Co., that any information he sought would have to be obtained through issuance of a subpoena duces tecum.

Mr. Lane said he is leaving for Boston today, 12/28/50, but next week he intends to talk to the general counsel of General Foods Co., and thereafter he might ask one of our agents to go to General Foods to determine whether any changes in pattern in Jello boxes have been made within the past five years.

Re: David Greenglass

In accordance with your request I was present last night when Emanuel Bloch interviewed Bernard Greenglass, brother of our client.

The following subjects were ~~inquired~~ inquired into by Emanuel Bloch and are noted together with the answers that were made:

Q. Do you know of any visits made by Ruth Greenglass to David at camp sites other than Los Alamos, and particularly around August of 1942? A. I was in the Army and so wouldn't know.

Q. How much money did you (Bernie) put up in the business? A. $1,500 plus amounts of $950, $700 and $500 borrowed from relatives, or a ~~total~~ total of $3,600.

Q. Did David put up any money? A. Yes.

Q. Did David get back any money? A. No.

Q. Were there arguments between Julie Rosenberg and David? A. Yes, about minor things in connection with the business. Julie always had to be the boss. In fact, "Julie has to be King Tut or nothing" and so there were many little arguments between Dave and Julie.

Q. Was David sore because he had to walk out of the business without a dime? A. No.

Q. Was Ruth sore because Dave had to walk out of the business without a dime? A. No.

Q. Was there bad feeling between Ruth and Ethel? A. No.

Q. Between Ruth and Julie? A. Yes, because of the business.

Q. Between the various couples, i.e., Ruth and David and Ethel and Julie, and Bernie and Mrs. Bernie? A. No. the three couples went out together on several occasions and always in good spirits. In fact, they were all up to Julie's house for dinner a couple of times and the boys used to go out to lunch with each other frequently. Dave liked Julie's kid Steven very much. Julie liked Dave's children.

Q. Did Ruth and Dave have bank accounts that you know of between 1943 and 1945? A. I don't think so.

Q. What was the address 266 Stanton Street? A. Where Dave lived when he got married in November of 1942.

(Bernie went AWOL in order to be present at the wedding and that's how he remembers)

Q. How long was that apartment kept by Ruth -- through early 1945? A. No, the apartment was given up in 1944 (an elaborate explanation how he remembers)

Bloch suggested that they might have additional meetings. He wanted Bernie to know that he was not antagonistic. Bloch Bernie agreed that if Bloch wanted to see him he could but told me that he would let us know first to make sure it was in our presence. Bloch left suggesting that Ethel feels badly because Bernie has not written her. Bloch said that Ethel was in poor condition and wasn't bearing up too well under the strain of being separated from her children and that she might frankly have to be sent to a doctor, but that Julie was bearing up very well.

Re memorandum SA JOHN A. HANISCH dated 12/1/50.

Mrs. ANNA LAUFFER was interviewed at her apartment GD 11, 10 Monroe Street, New York City, by SA MAURICE CORCORAN and the writer on January 6, 1951.

She advised she was acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. JULIUS ROSENBERG since they were their next door neighbors. The ROSENBERGS were residing there before the LAUFFERS moved in. Mr. ROSENBERG had a machine shop on Houston Street. They were very quiet people from the standpoint that they did not do much entertaining. They appeared to adore one another and were so good to their children that the children were completely spoiled and would eventually suffer because they would not be able to withstand any adversity. At no time did the ROSENBERGS express any Communistic, pro-Russian or anti-American sentiments nor did they appear to belong to any Communist groups or fronts.

Mrs. LAUFFER, who also has two children, advised that the ROSENBERGS were very noisy in that their children could play the phonograph at all hours of the day and night, often it was played as late as midnight and as early as five in the morning. They also had a piano which they played with no regard for the hour of the day. In addition, their children always had their own way and as a result Mrs. LAUFFER's children after playing with the ROSENBERG children were extremely hard to manage.

Mrs. LAUFFER spoke to Mrs. ROSENBERG on several occasions regarding the noise but it did no good so she tried to have as little to do with them as possible.

Mrs. LAUFFER was shown photographs of various subjects and suspects in the ROSENBERG case but was unable to identify any of the photographs. She also advised she did not know the names of any of their friends.

Mr. OSWALD LAUFFER was interviewed the same date at his employment, the Colonial Park Houses. He advised he met the ROSENBERGS as neighbors shortly after moving to this address in 1945. Most of his visits to the ROSENBERG apartment were to get his son who would be playing in the ROSENBERG apartment. He also advised that the ROSENBERGS were very noisy and that they did not maintain proper parental discipline over their children.

He recalled having visited ROSENBERG'S machine shop on Houston Street about a half dozen times. Originally, he went there to see the type of equipment ROSENBERG owned. He recalled ROSENBERG tried to specialize in small precision parts and for this close work used a microscope. LAUFFER tested this microscope and discovered that it was off and accordingly all the parts previously tested with the microscope would have to be off tolerance also.

Mr. LAUFFER recalled that IZZIE GOLDSTEIN, who also lives in Knickerbocker Village, was a partner of ROSENBERG. Also working for ROSENBERG was DAVID and BERNIE GREENGLASS, both of whom he met at the machine shop. It was his impression that the latter two were former servicemen and as such were able to purchase war surplus materials used in the shop. He believed these two men, because of their service connection, had been able to buy the machines used in the shop.

On one/his visits to ROSENBERG'S machine shop, he recalled having met Mrs. GREENGLASS but was unable to identify her photograph. The only other acquaintance of ROSENBERG he knew was VIVIAN, last name unknown, believed to be VIVIAN GLASSMAN, who occasionally acted as baby sitter for them and appeared to be a friend of the family. He last recalled seeing her visiting the ROSENBERGS in the Winter of 1949-1950. He also identified her photograph but was unable to identify the photograph of any of the other subjects or suspects.

Mr. LAUFFER advised he never tried to get work with ROSENBERG but knew ROSENBERG was trying to get someone interested in the business who could invest money in the machine shop.

According to Mr. LAUFFER, ROSENBERG never indicated any un-American tendencies but he was extremely social minded. He stated that it came as a shock to him and his wife when they heard on the radio that the ROSENBERGS had been arrested. At that time, Mr. and Mrs. LAUFFER were at their summer cottage at Lake Peekskill, New York.

Mr. LAUFFER advised that the ROSENBERGS did not have any real friend in the building at 10 Monroe Street, and they had no unusual or frequent visitors. The only time they were ever gone for any period of time was on one occasion three or four years ago shortly after their son, MICHAEL, had a tonsillectomy. At that time they spent a week in the Catskills at a hotel, the name of which is unknown, which has since burnt down. He also recalled on one occasion going to a sewing machine shop, possibly on Sheriff Street, New York City, which was operated by ROSENBERG's parents.

According to LAUFFER, ROSENBERG was interested in radios but knew of no interest he might have in cameras.

In conclusion, Mr. LAUFFER advised he had been employed at the Kellogg Corporation at the Woolworth Building, New York City, but had never been to Oakridge.

RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESPIONAGE - R

On 12/18/50 LOUIS THALLER, owner, T & S Sewing Machine Co., Inc., was interviewed by SA Robert F. Royal and the writer for any information that he might have concerning the subject.

THALLER stated that sometime in the spring of 1946 his former partner, ISIDORE FEIT, had introduced him to JULIUS ROSENBERG and DAVID and BERNARD GREENGLASS. At the time FEIT had advised THALLER that GREENGLASS was his nephew. At the time of the introduction GREENGLASS was still in Army uniform, awaiting discharge. ROSENBERG advised THALLER that he had previously worked for the U. S. Government. At the time of the introduction ROSENBERG and GREENGLASS stated that they were going into the business of selling U. S. Government surplus. For a period of approximately two to three months following the original meeting, GREENGLASS and ROSENBERG used the office of T & S as their headquarters. THALLER explained that no rent was charged and they just "seemed to hang around" to make a few phone calls. He said because of the GREENGLASSES' relationship with FEIT, ROSENBERG and GREENGLASS had been permitted free use of the office of T & S. THALLER was unable to furnish any information concerning contacts made by the GREENGLASSES or ROSENBERG during this time. He did mention that during this period ROSENBERG was constantly carrying a briefcase, the contents of which he had no knowledge.

During these few months the business of selling surplus was not very brisk and in THALLER'S opinion the business did not make $50.00 a week. He pointed out that this $50.00 a week would have to be divided between three individuals and he was at a loss to understand how they could have supported themselves on this small sum.

During this time THALLER also began to instruct the three partners in methods of repairing bushings which are used in sewing machines. Then in the late spring of 1946 ROSENBERG and the GREENGLASSES left his place of business to open a small machine shop on Second Street. He was unable to furnish any address which the subjects used. THALLER said that in 1946 ISIDORE FEIT had advised him that he had loaned $2,000 to ROSENBERG and the GREENGLASSES to be used to purchase surplus materials. ISIDORE had stated that he did not think he was going to get the money back when he had loaned them the money. THALLER said that he understood ISIDORE FEIT did receive the moneys advanced to ROSENBERG and the GREENGLASSES. THALLER advised that ISIDORE FEIT is connected with a LOUIS GREENBAUM. He was unable to furnish any address concerning LOUIS GREENBAUM. However, he advised that FEIT lives at 97 Brooklyn Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

THALLER advised that he was unable to furnish any other information concerning the activities of ROSENBERG and the GREENGLASSES. He did admit that FEIT, because of his relationship to the GREENGLASSES, would be able to furnish additional information concerning the loans made to ROSENBERG and the GREENGLASSES.

Regarding any business dealings which THALLER had with the Pitt Machine Products Co., it should be noted that he advised that his firm, the T & S Sewing Machine Company, had from time to time purchased small machine parts made by Pitt Machine Products Co., Inc. He advised that in the event the agents desired he would search his records for any purchase orders which he had furnished the Pitt Machine Products Co.

[REDACTED] of the Public National Bank and Trust Company of New York, 106 Avenue C, New York City, was contacted for the details concerning the bank loan of $3,000 which was received by the Pitt Machine Products, Inc. during March, 1948.

[REDACTED] made available his file pertaining to the Pitt Machine Products, Inc. On 3/18/48 a $3,000 loan, payable in 15 installments of $200, was made by this bank to the Pitt Machine Products, Inc. The first payment was due 4/18/48. The final payment was due 6/18/49. The Pitt Machine Products, Inc. received proceeds in the amount of $2,850. The charges on this loan amounted to $150. The co-maker of the loan was BERNARD GREENGLASS.

The following is information requested by the bank of the Pitt Machine Products, Inc. at the time the loan was negotiated:

"To what extent, if any, have you pledged any assets during the last year?"

Answer: "None."

MEMO
NY 65-15348

"Are any of the assets pledged at statement date?"

Answer: "No."

"Were the books audited by a Certified Public Accountant at statement date?"

Answer: "Yes."

"By Whom?"

Answer: "M. ISAACS, 1220 Broadway, New York City."

"Does financial statement contained on this form agree with statement prepared by such Certified Public Accountant?"

Answer: "Yes."

The bank, at the time of the loan, was advised that JULIUS ROSENBERG, President, held 25 shares of common stock; DAVID GREENGLASS, Vice President, 25 shares of common; DAVID SCHEIN, 25 shares of common; BERNARD GREENGLASS, Secretary, 25 shares of common.

[REDACTED] was questioned concerning ISAACS' statement mentioned in above referenced report, which indicates that the balance sheet dated 12/31/49, prepared by him for ROSENBERG, was to be used in connection with some bank loan on bid on government contract. [REDACTED] advised that if any other loans, other than the one outlined above, had been made to ROSENBERG or the Pitt Machine Products, Inc., this file would reflect the information; also, if ROSENBERG had requested such a loan and the loan had not been granted, the file would reflect the request. To his knowledge, he could not recall any other loans or any requests for loans.

Regarding the deficit of $1,861.98 shown in the above profit and loss statement for the period from 10/17/47 to 2/28/48, an undated memo in the bank files stated that the reason for this deficit "is that it took them up to about the present time to install the new place of business and they now have a substantial amount of confirmed orders on hand."

MEMO
NY 65-15348

This file also reflected that preferred stock in the amount of $13,900.00, which originally amounted to $15,000.00, was held by DAVID SCHEIN, an officer of the corporation. He was to receive $55.00 per week until this stock was paid in full.

[REDACTED] was questioned as to whether it was normal banking practice to make a loan to a business which showed a loss, as shown on the profit and loss statement of Pitt Machine Products, Inc. He advised that this was a little unusual but DAVID SCHEIN is a good customer of the bank and from time to time he borrows from the bank and has always repaid the bank in full. Because of SCHEIN'S connection with Pitt Machine Products, Inc., [REDACTED] said the loan had been made.

In connection with the above loan, a chattel mortgage was given to the Public National Bank and Trust Company by the Pitt Machine Products, Inc.

On 1/6/50 the writer reviewed the records of the County Clerk's Office, New York City, for information pertaining to this chattel mortgage. It is noted that Chattel Mortgage No. CM9083 was filed March 23, 1948. The mortgagor was the Pitt Machine Products, Inc., 370 East Houston Street. The Mortgagee was the Public National Bank and Trust Company, 37 Broad Street. The mortgage was for property located at 370 East Houston Street, New York City, and the amount of the indebtedness was $3,000. The mortgage was given on one No. 5 Midland turret lathe, Serial No. 443-51134, with all accessories. This mortgage was executed by the mortgagor on 3/17/48 and was signed by JULIUS ROSENBERG, DAVID GREENGLASS, BERNARD GREENGLASS and DAVID SCHEIN. The witness to this document was HARRY SCHER.

RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESPIONAGE - R

Reference is made to the memo dated August 28, 1950
by the writer captioned "JULIUS ROSENBERG, ESPIONAGE - R, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] INFORMANT", which will be found in serial 623 of 65-15340.

In an endeavor to develop information concerning HARRY LANDE and his connection with JULIUS ROSENBERG, the following investigation was conducted with a view to locating a colored maid named
"HATTIE", formerly employed by HARRY LANDE and his wife.

Mrs. WALTER E. (NEZ) WILLCOX, 10 Monroe Street, apartment D-2, advised that the LANDES formerly employed a colored maid by the name of HATTIE who lived in Harlem with her sister.
Mrs. WILLCOX was unable to furnish HATTIE'S last name, but stated that HATTIE had formerly been employed by several other tenants in Knickerbocker Village.

MILLIE CHARLESTOWN, 110 Rochester Avenue, Brooklyn,
New York, a colored maid employed by Mrs. WILLCOX, was contacted in an endeavor to locate HATTIE and she advised that while she had spoken to HATTIE several times in the building, she did not know her name or address.

Mrs. CYNTHIA M. USBERTOCK, secretary to Manager JOHN PACKARD, Knickerbocker Village, was contacted and her aid was solicited in an endeavor to locate HATTIE. Mrs. USBERTOCK contacted several tenants in the building under pretext in an endeavor to identify HATTIE to no avail.

Mrs. CATHERINE WALL, G. C. Penthouse, Knickerbocker Village, advised that HATTIE had formerly been employed by a family who lived in Knickerbocker Village who had moved to Brooklyn. Mrs. WALL was unable to recall the name of this family. Mrs. WALL advised that HATTIE had also possibly been employed by a family by the name of HENKEL who also formerly resided in Knickerbocker Village. She further stated that HATTIE had formerly purchased meat for the LANDE family at the Franklin Hyman Butcher Shop located on Monroe Street.

JOHN PACKARD, Manager, Knickerbocker Village, advised after a search of his records that the family to whom Mrs. WAIL referred when she stated the party had moved to Brooklyn was undoubtedly Mr. and Mrs. LOUIS BERSHEN, who moved on September 26, 1942 from the Village to 35 Orange Street, Brooklyn, New York.

Mr. PACKARD further stated that PAUL R. HENKEL presently resides at 1055 University Avenue, Bronx, New York, and that the HENKEL family had sublet from a Mrs. WASHBURN, who had lived in the apartment adjacent to the LANDES' apartment.

Mrs. PAUL R. HENKEL, 1055 University Avenue, Bronx, New York, was contacted and advised that she did not know of a colored maid by the name of HATTIE.

FRANKLIN HYMAN, butcher, 25 Monroe Street, advised that HATTIE had worked for the LOUIS BERSHENS who resided in Knickerbocker Village, and later moved to Brooklyn, New York, and that HATTIE worked for them while they resided at this latter address.

Mr. HYMAN stated that he had heard that the BERSHENS had moved out of the state but that he felt in all probability, due to the fact that they had employed HATTIE for a number of years, that if contacted they would be able to furnish her present address.

[REDACTED] original complainant regarding the LANDES, was contacted and was unable to furnish any additional information.

JOHN PACKARD, Manager of Knickerbocker Village, furnished the following information from his files concerning MILDRED B. and HARRY LANDE. He stated that he had suspected the LANDES of being Communists for some time due to incidents that had come to his attention, the exact nature of which he was unable to recall at this time. He advised that on January 7, 1948 a representative of the Military Intelligence contacted him concerning the LANDES and took a photograph of HARRY LANDE'S signature with them.

Mr. PACKARD stated that he recalled that he had observed one DAVID SEABROOK, an admitted Communist, often in the company of Mrs. HARRY LANDE. PACKARD advised that SEABROOK was approximately 5'7" tall, swarthy, having kinky hair, and further, that in March, 1942 SEABROOK moved from Knickerbocker Village to 9205 Whitney Avenue, Elmhurst, Long Island, but that SEABROOK still conducts his business under the name of Brucks Shirt Shop at 6 Kott Street, New York City.

Mr. PACKARD further stated that as of January 25, 1945 Mrs. LANDE was a member of the editorial staff of the "Knickerbocker News".

Mr. PACKARD advised that the LANDES had changed their name from LEVY to LANDE as of November 27, 1941.

H. A. CUSSION, Superintendent, 35 Orange Street, Brooklyn, New York, advised that he has been superintendent at the above address since May of 1950 and that the BERSHENS have not resided at this address during this time.

Contact was made at the inquiry window, Borough Hall Post Office, where it was ascertained that as of March 29, 1949 LOUIS and JEAN BERSHEN filed a removal notice of 349 Clinton Street, North Bedford, Massachusetts.

On January 5, 1951 an attempt was made to recontact JOHN PACKARD, Knickerbocker Village, at which time it was ascertained that he has been deceased for the past two weeks.

MEMO
NY 65-15348

A review of the New York files reflects that [REDACTED] furnished on April 4, 1947 a mimeographed list entitled "Jefferson School Dinner List - 1947". It was noted that one of the names on the list was Mrs. LOUIS BERSHEN. There was no further identifying data. The above reference was 100-51820-436, page 87.

In a reference 100-34573 in which no serial was given, is a file entitled "COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF UNITED SEAMEN'S SERVICE, INC., INTERNAL SECURITY - C".

65-14603-3506, page 42 refers to a case entitled "NATHAN GREGORY SILVERMASTER, WAS, ET AL, ESPIONAGE - R". This reference reflects that Confidential Informant [REDACTED] advised on May 19, 1947 that one RAYMOND CHAGNON, a known member of the Communist Party and until recently affiliated with the United Seamen's Service in Southern California, contacted a LOUIS BERSHEN, New York City, phone Whitehall 3-2500 and informed BERSHEN that he had made application for a passport and that the State Department had not turned it down. BERSHEN and CHAGNON then discussed a possible sailing date for CHAGNON, after which BERSHEN suggested that CHAGNON contact a girl named GOMEZ who was one of Mrs. RUTH SHIPLEY'S secretaries.

It could not be definitely ascertained whether the LOUIS BERSHEN referred to above was identical with LOUIS BERSHEN who formerly resided in Knickerbocker Village.

File 51-144-10460 contains a report received from the Third Naval District dated December 28, 1943 carrying the evaluation A-2. This report stated LOUIS BERSHEN, New York City, was until approximately two months ago an Assistant to CRAIG VINCENT, Communist head of the Recruitment and Manning Organization in New York City. It is believed he was about to be drafted, whereupon he recently became an employee of the United Seamen's Service as a representative of that organization in the Pacific area, for which reason he is believed to have left New York City very recently. In his capacity in the R.M.O., BERSHEN already in October, 1943 rejected a negro purser for the ship ROBERT LEE VAN, even though the negro, one LEEMAR HILL, was top man in the Militant Trainee Poll. The purser would have to bunk with the radio officer already assigned to the ship, who was also a negro. BERSHEN apparently was determined to assign a white man to bunk with the negro radio officer. When questioned, BERSHEN stated he was acting under orders from his superior, FRANK W. POLLATSEK, a rabid Communist. BERSHEN attempted to place three different unqualified white men in the job before he finally had to accept HILL.

It is not definitely known whether the LOUIS BERSHEN mentioned above is the BERSHEN who formerly resided in Knickerbocker Village, but it is possible, and therefore it is suggested that the complete file on BERSHEN be reviewed at Knickerbocker Village in an endeavor to determine if BERSHEN who resided at Knickerbocker Village is identical with the above listed references in the New York files.

It is suggested that a complete review of the New York files be made concerning LOUIS and JEAN BERSHEN, following which it is suggested that if at all possible, a letter be directed to the Boston office requesting that BERSHEN be contacted under pretext in an endeavor to ascertain the full name and present address of HATTIE in order that she may be interviewed concerning LANDE'S association with JULIUS ROSENBERG.

It is also requested that in the event HATTIE is located, that photographs of the subjects in the ROSENBERG case be displayed to her for possible identification and to place at least some of these subjects as visitors to the LANDES' apartment.

On 1-9-51 the writer interviewed Robert Quinlan at 1699 Lafayette Ave, Bronx, N.Y., Twilio 2-4951, in connection with his past employment at Pitt Machine Products Co.

QUINLAN worked at Pitt Machine Products Co. for about seven weeks during May-June 1948 as a machinist (turner lathe operator). Quinlan received their employment through the U.S. Employment Service. The hourly rate was $1.22. Quinlan stated that Julius Rosenberg was not in the shop much of the time.

Rosenberg often came to the shop about 2 p.m. Rosenberg never gave Hunter any impression that he was pro-Soviet or pro-Communist. Rosenberg appeared to be conducting a legitimate business and there seemed to be plenty of work. Hunter was "balded off" because (as Rosenberg told him) the work that Rosenberg had anticipated for the turret lathe had not come in.

Hunter never saw David Greenglass and doesn't recall seeing any visitors to the shop.

Re: Morris Pletman

Morris Pletman was interviewed at the New York Office 11/13/51 by SAs Jim Lee and Frederick E. Bauckham.

He advised he now resided at 215 W 101st Street, NYC; was born Sept 14, 1894 in Poland, and presently ~~was~~ employed by the Marcy Drug, 103rd St and Broadway, NYC. He is single, due to death of his wife.

He stated he was employed at the Pitt Machine Company from March 1950 to May 1950 and obtained this work through his brother Harry Pletman at 210 W 101st Street. His brother originally owned and operated the <sup>Whisper</sup> Dictograph Products Company, 65-15348-1043 424 Broadway Street NYC and they gave work to the Pitt Machine Company. Morris went with the Pitt Machine Company to assist them in getting out work for the Aristocrat Company. The Aristocrat Company was destroyed by fire and his brother Harry Blatman sold the business as a result.

His brother Harry now runs the Pitt Machine Company for Richard Rosenberg who bought the business.

Morris stated he never knew Julius Rosenberg before March 1950 although he had seen him occasionally when Julius visited the Aristocrat Company on business. While employed under Julius he never noticed anything unusual and was surprised at his arrest. He did say he noticed Julius was very nervous when his brother-in-law David Greenglass was arrested and that Julius had mentioned he intended to take a trip. He further stated he never saw or met David Greenglass. He recalled that there were political discussions with Rosenberg but they were of a general nature and he could not call anything specific.

He never saw Ethel Rosenberg prior to Rosenberg's arrest and then he saw her a couple of times afterwards at the Pitt Company. He said he was not working at the Pitt Company when Rosenberg was arrested but used to drop in once in awhile afterwards and that was when he saw Ethel.

Mrs. ALSCHER who is MAX ELITCHER'S sister-in-law, stated that her husband recently died, that she is just recovering from the blow and has three young children to care for, in addition to going to business to support them. She said she was completely occupied, now, and had absolutely no intention of becoming involved in anything. She said she refused to be interviewed by agents and wanted to be left alone to bring up her family. She refused to make any appointment for an interview. She said she never knew anyone named JULIUS ROSENBERG.

Rerep G. J. VAN DORN, 12/2/50 NYC, page 9, which reflects that the date 1/4/50 appears on stock certificate #2 of Pitt Machine Products Co., Inc.

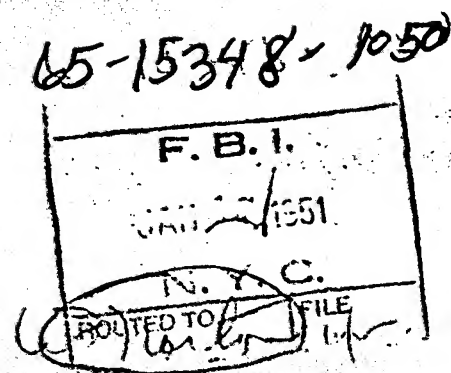

On 12/21/50, DAVID GREENGLASS advised that he had been wanting to get rid of his Pitt Machine stock since September, 1949 and carried on negotiations with JULIUS ROSENBERG from that time for ROSENBERG to buy the stock. These negotiations were prolonged because RUTH GREENGLASS thought DAVID should get $2000. or $3000. for the stock, and JULIUS ROSENBERG did not have the money to buy it. In January, 1950 ROSENBERG told DAVID he wanted DAVID'S stock as he felt if he had control of the stock, he would be able to negotiate with DAVID SHEIN for the latter's preferred and common stock. JULIUS promised DAVID GREENGLASS he would pay GREENGLASS $1000. for the latter's stock, with payment to be made at such time as the earnings of the corporation would permit. On the basis of the above offer, DAVID GREENGLASS took his stock to BENJAMIN GELMAN, notary public, and had his signature notarized as signing over the stock to JULIUS ROSENBERG on 1/4/50. He intended to turn over the stock to ROSENBERG immediately thereafter, but did not because RUTH GREENGLASS objected to giving up the stock without payment.

In May, 1950 JULIUS told DAVID he thought he could get SHEIN out of the corporation, if GREENGLASS would let JULIUS have his stock. At that time DAVID had decided he could get nothing for his stock and surrendered it to JULIUS ROSENBERG.

Correspondence of DAVID and RUTH GREENGLASS indicates that RUTH was living at 266 Stanton Street, NYC until about February 24, 1945. Both DAVID and RUTH state that she lived at that address until she moved to Albuquerque, New Mexico about March 1, 1945.

He advised that the owner of the building is FRANK WILENTZ, 690 Fort Washington Avenue, NYC, telephone WADsworth 7-4348, who is a brother of the former New Jersey Attorney General who prosecuted HAUPTMANN in the Lindbergh Kidnapping Case.

Mrs. FRANK WILENTZ advised that her husband's records reflect that DAVID and RUTH GREENGLASS rented apartment 4C at 266 Stanton St, NYC from December, 1942 through February, 1945. She also advised that some of the defense Attorneys had been attempting to get this same information from them during the week ending 1/5/51, but that she and her husband had declined to furnish them with the information, as they do not wish to become involved in the case. She said that the records are kept at her husband's office out of the city and that they would like to have about two weeks notice in the event it become necessary to produce the records in Court.

SUSSMAN is described as:

Build:	Slender;
Hair:	Blonde and parted on the side
Complexion:	Fair
Features:	Long thin face, receding chin;
Occupation:	Electrical Engineer

GREENGLASS first met SUSSMAN about 1937 or 1938 as a friend of JULIUS ROSENBERG. At that time GREENGLASS and his sister ETHEL occupied an apartment together and SUSSMAN frequented this apartment as did ROSENBERG until about 1939 when ROSENBERG and ETHEL were married.

About 1939 SUSSMAN was interested in the use of electronics to operate automatic machine tools. In 1939, SUSSMAN and ROSENBERG were very good friends and shared the same political beliefs.

client DAVID SHEIN. According to an agreement among stockholders dated October 22, 1947, he advised that in SHEIN'S interest he drew up this agreement dated October 22, 1947, which was designed to offset SHEIN'S disadvantage in being an inactive owner of the Pitt Co., in contrast to the active ownership of JULIUS ROSENBERG and the GREENGLASS brothers.

This agreement was also designed to protect SHEIN from being out-voted by the ROSENBERG-GREENGLASS family in matters pertaining to the Pitt Company. This agreement provided that SHEIN would advance capital to the company and would thereby acquire exclusive preferred stock to equal the amount of capital he advanced. It further provided that SHEIN would be entitled to one per cent return on the preferred stock and that he would also acquire 25 per cent of the company's common stock.

According to the October 22, 1947, agreement no money could be paid as dividends on the common stock until the preferred stock was completely retired, and all money received by SHEIN would be in the form of retirement of his preferred stock until the preferred stock was entirely paid off, after which, SHEIN would remain the owner of 25 per cent of the company's common stock.

This agreement also provided that JULIUS ROSENBERG and the GREENGLASS brothers would devote all their time to the Pitt Company, and that SHEIN would devote none of his time to the business. The Pitt Company was to employ and accountant to be designated by SHEIN and all common stock dividends were to have been in four equal shares.

Mr. ZUCKER stated that the United States Documentary Stamps, "Series 1949", which were attached to stock certificate stubs 1,2,3,4 and P1, all dated 12/11/47, had been attached to the stock certificates by himself in compliance with the United States Internal Revenue Code and

MEMO:

New York State Tax Laws.

He stated that when stock is issued by a new corporation Federal and State laws require that such stamps be affixed to the certificates in order to make the stock transfer binding and that such stamps are ordinarily attached in an amount corresponding with the value of the stock being issued.

In view of the information set out above concerning IRVING A. RUBIN and MEYER H. COHEN, these persons were not interviewed for their knowledge of the organization of Pitt Machine Products, Inc., in 1947 as was suggested in a lead on page 42 of referenced report.

He said that the books of G & R had been kept by ISADORE GOLDSTEIN who was an accountant. DAVID GREENGLASS furnished the following information concerning the withdrawals of capital::

$310 withdrawn 7/23/46 by DAVID GREENGLASS was for down payment on his furniture;

$500 withdrawn by BERNARD GREENGLASS 7/23/46 and in 8/46 was for down payment on machinery purchased by the G & R ENGINEERING CO. The other withdrawals listed were to meet payrolls and were listed under the name of whichever partner who happened to go to the bank to get the payroll money.

The $3,870.00 capital investment 7/16/46 listed to BERNARD GREENGLASS had been borrowed from relatives for the benefit of the G & R ENGINEERING CO.

RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG

ESPIONAGE - R

Form #10

The first carton of Form #10 was printed for the Lemon flavor on July 12, 1943. This form differed from the previous form in that the number seven flavor "Cola" was discontinued as the seventh flavor and the type of the ingredient lines were increased from six point to eight point (increased to one-ninth of an inch). The cartons manufactured for the other flavors were first printed on the following dates:

Strawberry	August 6, 1943
Cherry	July 12, 1943
Lime	September 2, 1943
Raspberry	July 12, 1943
Orange	July 12, 1943.

Form #11

On September 11, 1944 the Jello Plant began to print one hundred twelve million cartons known as the "Special Edition", which carried a reference to "The Kate Smith Hour". This edition was discontinued on December 21, 1944 and the inventories of Form #10 were then used up.

Form #11 cartons first appeared in the following order:

Strawberry	September 11, 1944
Raspberry	September 18, 1944
Cherry	September 14, 1944
Orange	September 20, 1944
Lime	September 28, 1944
Lemon	October 2, 1944.

Form #12

Copies of all flavors except Lime are being transmitted to your office of this form number. This form contains a series of recipes to replace the advertisement for "The Kate Smith Hour" listed on Form #11. The first paragraph of the directions panel and the sub-headings of the second and third paragraphs are set forth in bold-face type. Other changes were made in the type matter pertaining to the directions.

This form number was manufactured from March 15, 1945 to May 6, 1946.

Letter to SAC, New York
RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESPIONAGE - R

January 19, 1951

Form #13

The only change on this form is that the word "Dextrose" was omitted from the ingredient line in all flavors. These cartons were manufactured from March 7, 1946 to September 3, 1946.

This form number is identified by the symbol LR-13 located on the glue flap of the carton, identifying the carton as Form #13 made at the Leroy, New York Plant. All other cartons made subsequent to Form #13 are identified in this manner.

Form #14

This form is not being transmitted as it is a carton made for a "Sure-Jell" solution and is not a jello.

Form #15

This form is the same as #13 except that the recipes were omitted and the top panel contains an advertisement of the "New baby Snooks Show".

These cartons were manufactured from September 3, 1946 to April 24, 1947 when they were discontinued.

Form #16

Only one flavor (Cherry) is available of this form. The only change in the form is the word "tartaric" is dropped from the ingredient line on all flavors.

This form was first printed on April 24, 1947.

Form #17

The change in this form affects only the Lemon cartons. The words "vegetable color" are omitted from the ingredient line and the words "U. S. certified color" are added.

These cartons were printed from April 28, 1947 to May 19, 1947.

RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESPIONAGE - R

Form #18

This form has the word "Dextrose" and the words "Sodium citrate and/or phosphate" added to the ingredient line of all flavors.

This form was first printed on May 12, 1947 and was discontinued on November 14, 1947.

An extra flavor of Grape was made and shipped in carton #18. However, only 50,400 cartons were manufactured and all of these were shipped to the Chicago area on July 11, 1947. The carton with the Grape Jello contains the lettering "Seven delicious flavors". The other cartons all contain the lettering "Six delicious flavors".

Form #19

This form contains a change in recipe only, affecting all flavors.

This carton was originally manufactured on November 14, 1947.

Form #20

This form number has not been transmitted as it is a Jello Tapioca and not a jello.

Form #21

The only change in this form is that the ribbon is inverted and the word "Brand" is set in blue over the ribbon.

Cartons of this type were first made on December 30, 1947 and were discontinued in August, 1948.

Form #22

This form is for a carton used on "Sure-Jell" and is not being transmitted.

Letter to SAC, New York
RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESPIONAGE - R

January 19, 1951

Form #23

The only difference in this carton is the word "Brand" is changed in lettering from blue to red. It remains in the same position on the carton.

The first carton of this type was manufactured on March 26, 1948.

Form #24

On this carton the word "Lextrose" was dropped from the ingredient line.

This carton was first made on November 26, 1948.

Forms #25 - #34

Forms #25 through #34 are cartons being used for products made by this company other than Jello.

Form #35

This form is a carton used only for Grape Jello as the company is still experimenting with the sales of this type of Jello. The carton contains the lettering "Six delicious flavors" rather than "Seven" when this flavor was previously used.

Form #36

This is the form listed for the cartons manufactured at Mineola, Long Island by the U. S. Printing and Lithograph Corp. These cartons are identified by the letter "P" on the glue flap of the carton.

Mr. BRIERLEY explained that these cartons are usually delivered to the retail stores approximately sixty days after their manufacture at this plant. However, cartons remain on the shelves of retail stores indefinitely.

BRIERLEY also stated that he furnished photostats of Forms #8 and #9 together with samples of all other subsequent cartons to Mr. R. M. SCHWEITZ, General Foods Corp. Office 16-13 located at 250 Park Ave., New York, N.Y. These cartons were subsequently furnished to one of the corporation attorneys, whom he identified as ARTHUR D. WINGEBACH, Office 7-2 located in the same building.

Due to the numerous changes in the Jello boxes during the past ten years, Mr. BRIERLEY requested that if it were possible he would appreciate information regarding the type, size, flavor and form number of the Jello box he may be called upon to identify at the trial of ROSENBERG in order that he might be better prepared to testify.

As these cartons being transmitted to your office as enclosures to this letter severely deplete BRIERLEY's file, he further requested that these boxes be returned when they have served their purpose.

Re: JULIUS ROSENBERG

NICHOLAS TARTAKOW was interviewed by the writer at the Federal House of Detention on January 9, 1951. He advised that on Wednesday or Thursday of the week previous, the attorney for ABRAHAM BROTHMAN called at the Federal House and had been given some notes which had been prepared by JULIUS ROSENBERG and which ROSENBERG wished delivered to someone outside the prison. According to TARTAKOW, this procedure of getting information out of the prison has been used by ROSENBERG in the past.

TARTAKOW advised that a BYRON B. NIELSON, who had formerly been a chaplain at the prison but who is not now connected in any official capacity at the prison, calls frequently and converses with BROTHMAN. TARTAKOW stated that the two of them are very friendly, and that NIELSON gave BROTHMAN $2,000.00 to be used towards his bail money. Further, that BROTHMAN gives NIELSON little missions to perform for him outside of the prison.

Prison records reflect that BYRON B. NIELSON, a chaplain, resides at 4520 Fourth Avenue, Brooklyn, New York. No direct inquiry was made at the prison concerning NIELSON by the writer.

TARTAKOW stated that ROSENBERG, during his conversations, mentioned ARTHUR TINKLE, school teacher, whom ROSENBERG was supposed to have worked with and who is referred to by ROSENBERG as being reliable.

TARTAKOW stated that on Sunday, January 7, 1951, he and ROSENBERG attended the prison movie theatre where the picture "Malaya" was being shown. TARTAKOW advised that all during the picture ROSENBERG made no comment other than ordinary interest in the film, but that at a certain time he became very excited and stated that the particular scene being shown at that time was familiar to him.

According to TARTAKOW, ROSENBERG later stated that during the past year, he had gone into a movie theatre on a pre-arranged meeting, and that after sitting down for five minutes a man sat next to him and gave

Re: JULIUS ROSENBERG

On January 5, 1951, Warden THOMPSON of the Federal House of Detention, advised the writer that JEROME PARTAKOW had submitted a letter to him requesting the release of the $500.00 money order which had been sent to him (PARTAKOW) at the prison and which had been impounded by the Warden.

This letter was made available by Warden THOMPSON, and was furnished to SAS JOHN A. HARRINGTON and WILLIAM F. NORTON in order that photostatic copies might be obtained for the file. Instant letter was then returned to Warden THOMPSON by the writer.

PARTAKOW was interviewed on the same date by the writer, and he stated that he had received the $500.00 money order from a friend of his which he was going to send to his wife for the support of their child. PARTAKOW insisted that his $500.00 money order had absolutely no bearing on his association with JULIUS ROSENBERG nor with his activities in connection with ROSENBERG at the Federal House of Detention.

PARTAKOW refused to divulge the identity of the individual who had sent him the money order, stating that he had been asked to keep the matter in confidence and that since the $500.00 had been sent, he felt that he should respect the confidence.

It was pointed out to PARTAKOW that in view of the fact that he had expressed a desire to cooperate with Bureau agents in furnishing information concerning JULIUS ROSENBERG, a reasonable explanation of the source and reason for the $500.00 was expected. PARTAKOW then stated that the reason he refused to divulge the source of the money order was that EUGENE DENNIS and other inmates of the prison would suspect him of being an informant if the person who sent him the money order was to be questioned. He then furnished the following information, requesting that it be kept in confidence for his own protection:

Memo

He stated that the $500.00 money order was sent to him by a Reverend RICHARD MORFORD through his secretary, a girl named BELLE, whose last name he did not know. PARTAKOW advised that MORFORD had spent three months in the Federal House of Detention for contempt of Congress, and that he had been released about two months previously. According to PARTAKOW, MORFORD promised to loan him the money while still in jail. Check name

PARTAKOW advised that he had not heard from MORFORD since that time up until about two weeks ago when he sent MORFORD a telegram via a colored inmate who was being released. PARTAKOW stated that shortly after that he heard, via the grapevine, that he would receive the money order in the near future.

PARTAKOW described MORFORD as a supposed liberal but in reality, a leading member of the Communist Party. According to PARTAKOW, ROSENBERG and MORFORD never spoke to one another, and are not acquainted although they were both confined in the Federal House of Detention at the same time.

PARTAKOW was advised that he would be recontacted on January 9 and 10, 1951.

Reit was unable to recall GOLDSTEIN's first name.

Sometime in 1949 ROSENBERG contacted REIT to have him institute legal proceedings against the "ECONOMIZER" Co. She verified the fact that she was SARAH SILVERMAN before marriage, that she had been employed by the Civil Service Commission at Washington, D.C. about 1939. She stated that about that time she had known a MAX ELITCHER. She described him as a casual acquaintance with whom she had played tennis at a public park in Washington, D.C. She stated that she knew nothing of his background or his work, did not know where he lived except that it was somewhere in the Northwest section of Washington, D.C., never met any of his friends, did not date him, nor did he ever meet any of his friends. Her knowledge of him at any time, according to her own statement, was limited to his name and the fact that he played tennis at the same public park at which she played. She identified a picture of MAX ELITCHER as the person in question.

She stated that she had never heard the name MORTON SOBELL, nor could she recognize his photo. She stated flatly that she had never been a member of the Communist Party, or a member of the American Peace Mobilization. She stated she had never heard of JULIUS ROSENBERG, and was not aware of the fact that ROSENBERG and SOBELL were in jail awaiting trial on charges of espionage.

Mrs. POWELL gave short answers to all questions, volunteering no information or explanations. She appeared agitated, and it was the impression of interviewing agents that she was withholding information. She seemed interested in ascertaining the source of the information concerning her, and how her present location was known to the Bureau.
